Star-Route Attorney Bliss Denies Certain Charges Against Blaine—The English Investigation.

The Senate Passes the Utah Bill—A Glance at Its Most Important Provisions.

The Measure for the Regulation of the Pacific Railways Occupies the Attention of the House.

Latest From Washington.

BLISS ON THE STAND.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—George Bliss appeared yesterday morning before the Springer committee. He put in considerable testimony, oral and documentary, intended to refute Ker's charge that he, Bliss, had been recreant in his duty toward ex-Senator Dorsey in the first Star-route trial. Bliss had been complimented upon his conducting the case, and Brewster begged him to remain in charge of them. Bliss gave a page of the inside history regarding the removal of Marshal Henry, Postmaster Ainger and ex-Senator Spencer on his own responsibility. Bliss asked the President to remove these gentlemen, and he did so. The line of examination here suggesting the rumors in regard to ex-Secretary Blaine having used influence in Dorsey's favor, a question was put:

"Did Mr. Blaine ever request you to favor Mr. Dorsey?"

Bliss at once replied: "I have never, since my connection with the star-route cases, spoken to Blaine about them and never received a letter from Mr. Blaine, or any one else asking me to favor Dorsey or any of the star route defendants."

This seemed to put an end to that part of the inquiry.

ROBBED BY THEIR INTIMATE FRIEND.

In another instance $10,000 [illegible] have disappeared. They had [illegible] Middleton's bank.

The Senate yesterday morning was informed [illegible] amendments to the Fitz John Porter bill [illegible] by the House Committee [illegible] final passage in the House. The Utah bill was taken up. Mr. Brown [illegible] to strike out the clause abolishing woman suffrage, but was defeated by a vote of 17 to [illegible]. The bill then passed—yeas 35, nays 15. The bill as passed is in substance as follows:

A lawful husband or wife may be compelled to testify in prosecutions for bigamy, polygamy or unlawful cohabitation. In such prosecutions an attachment for the witness may be issued without a previous subpœna. Bail may be accepted for the appearance of such witness, and in any case he or she shall not be [illegible] Prosecutions may be commenced within five years after the commission of the offense. Every certificate shall be open to inspection by officers of the United States. Women shall not be entitled to vote. All measures of the Territorial Legislature providing for numbering or identifying votes of electors are annulled, but this provision is not to preclude the lawful registration of votes. The Probate Court is deprived of all jurisdiction except as to the estates of deceased persons, guardianship of the persons and the property of infants and lunatics. All laws of the Territory of Utah conferring the rights of inheritance on illegitimate children are annulled. The Territorial laws providing that a prosecution for adultery can only be commenced on the complaint of a husband or wife are annulled. The Territorial laws incorporating, continuing or providing for the corporation known as "Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints," and the ordinance of the so-called General Assembly of the State of Deseret incorporating the church are annulled so far as they may preclude the appointment of trustees by the United States. The President, with the advice of the Senate shall appoint fourteen trustees for the corporation who shall have the powers of the trustees and assistant trustees provided for in the act creating that corporation, shall hold office two years and shall each give bond in an amount to be fixed by the Secretary of the Interior. The General Assembly of Utah shall not have the power to change the laws respecting the corporation without the approval of Congress. All the laws of Utah relating to the Perpetual Emigrating Fund Company are annulled and it is rendered unlawful for the Legislature of the Territory to recognize any association having for its object the bringing of persons into the Territory for any purpose whatever. The Attorney General is directed to institute suits to dissolve the company named and dispose of its property. The property and assets in excess of the debts and lawful claims shall be used by the Secretary of the Interior for the benefit of the common schools of the Territory. All existing election districts in the Territory are abolished, and it is made the duty of the Governor, the Territorial Secretary, and the United States Judges of the Territory to redistrict it so as to secure general representation for the people. The penalty for adultery shall be imprisonment in the penitentiary for not exceeding three years.

After the passage of the bill the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

In the House yesterday a further conference was ordered on the Post-office bill, and Messrs. Townshend, Holman and Horr were appointed conferees on the part of the House. The House refused to consider the Ohio and Mississippi contested election cases and proceeded to the consideration of the Pacific Railroad bill, known as the Thurman Amendment bill. It extends the provisions of the Thurman act to the Kansas Pacific, Sioux City & Pacific, and the Central Branch of the Union Pacific. It allows the investment of the sinking funds of all companies in their own first mortgage bonds, or any United States bonds or securities, or their application to the extinguishment of the interest on the subsidy bonds, it requires one half of the annual compensation for Government service, to be carried to the sinking fund and also the annual payment into the sinking fund of the following sums: The Central Pacific Company and Union Pacific Company, $2,000,000 each, Kansas Pacific Company, $800,000, Central Branch, Union Pacific, $150,000; Sioux City & Pacific Company, $150,000, or as much of such sums as will make the total annual payment to the sinking fund equal to thirty-five per cent. of the net earnings of the respective companies. In case the residue of net earnings is insufficient to pay the interest on the first mortgage bonds the amount necessary for that purpose may be remitted. The companies are required to pay into their sinking funds on or before January 1, 1885 the following sums, less amounts due them for Government service: Central and Union Pacific, each $500,000; Kansas Pacific, $200,000; Sioux City and Central Branch, Union Pacific, $500,000 each. It forbids the payment of dividends while the companies are in default in respect to these requirements. The sinking funds are to be applied under section 8, to the payment of subsidy bonds at maturity and under section 9 for the protection and benefit of the first mortgage bondholders. The twelfth section [illegible] that failure on the part of any of the companies to comply with these requirements for six months shall operate as a forfeiture of the franchise.

The substitute offered by the minority of the Pacific Railroad Committee provides for the extinguishment of the debt due the Government by the issue by the companies of sixty years redemption bonds.

BISHOP SIMPSON DEAD.

The Venerable Prelate Peacefully Passes Away in Philadelphia—Biographical.

PHILADELPHIA, June 19.—Bishop Simpson died at eleven o'clock yesterday morning. His end was comparatively sudden, coming unexpectedly when he appeared to be resting easier.

Matthew Simpson was born at Cadiz, O., June 21, 1811 and consequently at the time of his death only lacked three days of being seventy-three years of age. He received his education at the Cadiz Academy and Madison College, Pennsylvania. After spending some time as a teacher in the latter institution he [illegible] upon the study of medicine but only practiced a short time when he conceived the idea of entering the ministry. Five years after he began his collegiate education he was made a member of the Pittsburgh Conference of the M. E. Church. In 1837 he was made Professor of Natural Sciences and Vice President of Allegheny College. Two years afterward he became President of Indiana Asbury University, which position he held until 1848. He then became editor of the Western Christian Advocate, this place he held for four years. He was elevated to the Bishopric thirty-two years ago. At the time of his appointment as Bishop there were only three Bishops in active service—Waugh, Morris and Janes. They are dead and Bishop Simpson at the time of his death was the oldest episcopal servant of the Methodist Church, both in years and service. He was the accredited representative of the Methodists in America at the Irish and British conferences at Cork and Liverpool [illegible] of the Evangelical Alliance [illegible] and afterward traveled in [illegible] At the [illegible] he was in intimate [illegible] Lincoln and Secretary Stanton and was among the first to suggest the emancipation of the slaves. He edited the Cyclopedia of Methodism, wrote "A Hundred Years of Methodism," lectures on [illegible] and various pamphlets. He was a [illegible] orator and spoke on many memorable occasions.

Bishop Simpson has lived in Philadelphia for many years [illegible] He was married to Miss Ellen H. Verner of Pittsburgh soon after he entered the ministry. His only living son Matthew Verner Simpson, an Assistant Solicitor of Philadelphia. Of the four daughters, two live at the family residence, [illegible] street. Another is the wife of Rev. C. W. Buoy [illegible] and the fourth is the wife of Colonel [illegible] Weaver, Consul General at Vienna, and some time Consul at Antwerp.

TRAIN WRECKERS AT WORK.

They Cause a Disaster to a Passenger Train Which Seriously Injures Thirty Persons.

ATCHISON, Kan., June 19.—The west-bound train on the Burlington & Missouri River road for Denver was ditched near Falls City early yesterday morning, the rails spreading on account of a washout. The passengers were badly shaken up, but not dangerously hurt. The east bound passenger train was less fortunate as it approached Hubbel. It appears some miscreants had removed the spikes and spread the rails about sixty feet from the approach to a bridge one hundred and fifty feet long. The engine left the track, but crossed the bridge on the ties. The jolting weakened the bridge, causing it to fall, carrying down the entire train. The engine, smoking-car, day coach and sleeper were a complete wreck. About thirty persons were injured. A special train brought nine of the wounded to this city. Examination indicates that the wreckers drew out spikes, removed fish plates, fastened barbed wire in the holes, and pulled the rails apart when the train approached.

A Very Narrow Escape.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 19.—Yesterday afternoon workmen to the number of about twenty were engaged in unloading a gravel barge at the foot of Jackson street here. Suddenly the barge, which was old and rotten, sprung a leak and collapsed before the men could get off. Breaking violently into three pieces it threw the twenty men high in the air, and all fell in a mass into fifteen feet of water. The men on shore threw ropes and planks and all were drawn out except one, a negro named Fletcher Phillips, who was drowned. The majority of the men were uninjured, but three or four were seriously hurt. Jim Hatch was drawn ashore unconscious, after having been under water several minutes. He received internal injuries from which he will die. Several men had to be emptied by having the water rolled out of them.

Preferred Death to Dyspepsia.

NEW YORK, June 19.—S. W. Sibley, junior member of the well known Boston dry-goods firm of J. L. Brewer & Co., committed suicide in his New York office yesterday by cutting his throat from ear to ear with a razor. Mr. Sibley has long been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and it is supposed he was in pain and almost crazed when he ended his life.

Wholesale Grocers in Conference.

DES MOINES, Ia., June 19.—The Western Wholesale Grocers' Association, in session in this city yesterday, elected the following officers: President, J. H. Merrill, Ottumwa; First Vice-President, A. C. Dart, Rock Island; Second Vice-President, C. C. Trouty, Des Moines; Third Vice-President, Benjamin B. Jewell, Secretary and Treasurer, John Bland, Jr.

Will Inquire into American Outrages.

LONDON, June 19.—In the House of Commons to-day Arthur Arnold, member for Salford, will make inquiry concerning the alleged abduction of an Englishman named Sheldon by outlaws in Kansas, for whose ransom $1,400 was demanded, and in the event of that sum not being forthcoming he was to be put to death.

A Vessel and Ten Sailors Go Down.

NEW YORK, June 19.—The quarantine bark Rafael Pomer, from Havana, has just arrived with the sole survivor of the bark G. P. Sherwood, from Philadelphia for Halifax with coal. On the 14th in a heavy gale her cargo shifted and the vessel sunk, and the crew of ten men were drowned.

A Costly Kiss.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 19.—Paul Martin, who forcibly kissed Miss Ernestina Curtis in this city recently, was sentenced to confinement in the House of Correction for three months.

Quick Relief!

When a man has suffered from Rheumatism only a little while, and is relieved from his pain, he is happy and delighted. But suppose he has suffered for more than a third of a century.

Alvin Grim, of Vale, Iowa, writes "ATHLOPHOROS has helped me much. The pain in my limbs is all gone, but some lameness is left yet, and well there might be, for I have been troubled for thirty-five years with Rheumatism."

Mrs. A. B. Baker, of Chicago,

Had rheumatic pains in her back for fifteen years, and Mr Baker had been the victim of Rheumatism until his head was drawn down over his left shoulder. Mr. Baker writes:

"Half a bottle of ATHLOPHOROS made me as good as new. My wife has taken the other half, and has not complained of her back since. She says her back never was so free from pain and ache as it has been since she has taken the ATHLOPHOROS."

There are many people who think that because they have suffered so long, and have tried so many medicines in vain, they must "suffer on [illegible] three score years." But you see what ATHLOPHOROS has done.

However Old your Case;
However Severe your Pains;
However Great your Disappointments.

Try Athlophoros

If you cannot get Athlophoros of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it, do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us as directed.

was the first preparation perfectly adapted to cure diseases of the scalp, and the first successful restorer of faded or gray hair to its natural color, growth, and youthful beauty. It has had many imitators, but none have so fully met all the requirements needful for the proper treatment of the hair and scalp. HALL'S HAIR RENEWER has steadily grown in favor, and spread its fame and usefulness to every quarter of the globe. Its unparalleled success can be attributed to but one cause: the entire fulfilment of its promises.

The proprietors have often been surprised at the receipt of orders from remote countries, where they had never made an effort for its introduction.

The use for a short time of HALL'S HAIR RENEWER wonderfully improves the personal appearance. It cleanses the scalp from all impurities, cures all humors, fever, and dryness, and thus prevents baldness. It stimulates the weakened glands, and enables them to push forward a new and vigorous growth. The effects of this article are not transient, like those of alcoholic preparations, but remain a long time, which makes its use a matter of economy.

HON. WALTER CARLIN, of Jerseyville, is favorably mentioned as a candidate for state treasurer, on the ticket to be nominated at Peoria

THE result of the Prohibition Convention at Bloomington shows that this element intend to be a party unto themselves. This is their privilege, but democrats will do well to "stand by the old ship"

GOV CLEVELAND is a bachelor. The last democrat, Buchanan, who served as president was a bachelor. The last one elected, Tilden, was a bachelor, and the facts appear to indicate that the next winning man will be a bachelor.

BARNUM did not come yesterday, as some of the boys expected. Doubtless a good trade could be arranged with him. We know a number of boys that are willing that he shall have the "Kindergarten" at a small price.

THE indications are that Illinois will not deal in the "favorite son" business this year for the presidency, but will be for Cleveland. Second place might be appreciated, but just now democrats are for putting up a ticket that will win.

CARL SCHURZ says he is willing to help the democrats to elect such a man as Cleveland or Bayard. Henry Ward Beecher says to the independent republicans, "Our first duty is to induce the democrats to put up good men, and our second is to help elect them"

THE Kansas City Star, republican, says. "Everybody knows that Mr. Blaine was 'crooked' when Speaker of the House, but a vast number admire him for it, and another large multitude have forgiven him. The Blaine boomers cannot be stampeded by roorbacks"

THE Republican says "the New York democrats were evidently afraid to tackle the tariff question" They have doubtless heard of the Republican's position on the license question —— silence. But they endorse former platforms which were in favor of revenue reform. The Republican has no record to refer to.

WANTED —A file of the Decatur Republican for one month previous to the city election in 1882. We wish to re publish certain articles in favor of straight party nominations in order that any mal-administrations in city affairs may be fixed upon a certain party. A liberal price will be paid for these papers

THE harmonious action of the New York state democratic convention is a sore disappointment to the republicans of the country. They had hoped for a quarrel and a bolt. Instead they have to meet an organization that is united and enthusiastic. The delegations to the Chicago convention will cast 72 votes as a unit, and these almost without doubt for Hon Grover Cleveland, the popular governor of the Empire state

WE are not under any obligations to answer any questions for the Republican, inasmuch as it never answers any, particularly the one as to how it stands on the license question. When asked, the REVIEW in a manly and unequivical manner stated its position. The Republican refuses. But a good citizen of Decatur who stands high in financial circles authorizes us to say that he can name the parties to the bulldosing bargains of 1882, and that he will bet $500 that he can prove it. In the mean time the Republican can tell us how it stands on the license question.

Lake City

There were one hundred and nine scholars in attendance at our Sunday school last Sunday.

Mr O P Shreeves, of this village was in Sullivan on Monday, on legal business. ..., Mr W A McMullin and family, of Lovington, visited friends in this town and vicinity the past few days. The bones of a huge mastodon were found in a field of Mr Wm Winnings, by some men engaged in laying tile. The tusks were over ten feet in length, and about twenty-two inches in diameter at the larger end. They are looked upon here as an important find. Mr George Penwell is talking about removing to Kansas at an early day. The spring term of school closed at Sunny Side last Thursday and a large number of visitors were present in the afternoon. The names of the pupils making the highest averages in their studies are as follows. Kate Beadles 91, Lennie Myer 92, Emma Stackhouse 91, Bruce Fevik 87, Zellie Davidson 86, Sadie Beadles 84, Lena Sherman 83. The following were neither absent nor tardy during the term. Mamie Hoagland, Lucy Dickson Cothern, Kate Beadles, Lennie Myer and Archie Myer.

ARGUMENTS BEGUN.

The Adams Murder Case Rapidly Drawing to a Close.

The Adams murder case which has engrossed the attention of the circuit court this week is rapidly nearing the end, and now the persons who have been in regular attendance since the commencement, are speculating as to the character of the sentence he will receive. That he is guilty, there seems no reasonable doubt, but what penalty the jury will think him deserving of, remains to be seen. A few persons think that he may possibly receive a death sentence, while others place his punishment all the way from fifteen years to life in the penitentiary. The testimony of Adam's own witnesses, or at least the majority of them, was corroborative of that presented by the prosecution. The witnesses examined by the defense yesterday were John G. Dix, John Cawrey, J. M. Pursinger and Milt Adams. The latter gentleman was president of the Maroa town board at the time of the shooting, and was standing near John Adams when he shot Cooper. He testified to seeing a knife in Cooper's hand previous to the shooting, but did not know but what Cooper put it in his pocket previous to the shot being fired. John Cawrey was in Decatur on the day of the shooting, and had a conversation with Cooper, in which the latter expressed his dislike for John Adams, and Lon Humphrey, the other town officer of Maroa. He testified that Joe Cooper said he would kill either if they ever troubled him. James Leech was being examined yesterday afternoon when court convened. He had passed the line house at Maroa, while Cooper, Wiley and McGuire were in, but did not stop. Judge Davidson cross examined him at considerable length. The last witness was Frank Stroud, who was at the time of the tragedy employed as salesman at Kent's furniture store, but is now holding a similar position in Milt Adams' store. He was one of the important witnesses, and testified as follows:

Was in Maroa, September 6, 1883. I saw Adams and Cooper in front of Emery's bank. John and Milt Adams were talking. Cooper was behind facing John Adams. He commenced talking. I was setting a hundred feet southwest in Kent's furniture store. When Cooper came up, he put his hand in his right hand pants pocket. Removed hand and put both hand in front of him. He then put them behind. Couldn't say he had anything. John Adams stepped back about two steps at that time. Cooper went towards him. They were about four feet apart. The next that occurred was Adams shooting. Cooper did not do anything with his hands after he was shot, but moved towards Adams. Adams raised his revolver a second time. Cooper showed his hands. Adams then took Cooper's left hand and put the revolver in his pocket. After scuffling they were near sidewalk. Adams put his hand in Cooper's pocket. Took his hand out and gave something to Milt Adams.

Cross Examination.—I work for Milt Adams. Been there a month. Clerk in hardware store. Worked for Kent when shooting occurred. It was a hundred feet from store. My attention was attracted by Milt and John Adams talking. When Cooper came up the three stood but a few moments. He put his hand in his right pocket. I was watching Cooper. When he walked up his hands were at his side. It was my impression that he carried it that way. When he took his hand out of his pocket he put both hands together. He put his hands behind him next. Could not see anything in them. Don't know whether they were open or closed. Adams stepped back first. It was 2 or 3 seconds after Cooper fell. He stepped back two steps. Didn't count steps. Did not know at the time. He stepped back after Cooper had placed hands in front of him. Can't tell how many steps Cooper took forward. They were then about four feet apart. I can't tell exactly how far apart they were. Cooper didn't stop at all. Adams stopped once, then backed again. Didn't hear them say anything. Adams raised revolver after he had stopped the first time. When he raised the revolver they were six feet apart. After shot Adams held revolver at his side, Cooper tottered forward and Adams raised the revolver again. I think I have seen a drunk man. Cooper was unsteady on his feet. His hands were behind him when he advanced. He tottered towards Adams being unsteady on his feet. He had no knife. Could have seen it if he had. His hands were not in front. They were six feet apart when pistol was discharged. At the report Cooper's hands were behind him and he was leaning forward, tottering. He showed his hands after shot. Saw nothing in them. They first fell to his side. He raised right hand first. It was open with nothing in it. He then showed the other hand which was empty. He showed hands after pistol was pointed a second time. His hands then fell to his side and John Adams took hold of him to search him. They were through searching when I got there. Milt Adams could have touched Cooper when he first came up and stood by his side. Think John Adams could have touched him. Neither touched him until after the shot. Did not see Cooper make any attempt to use a knife on Adams.

Judge Nelson arose and stated that the defense would end their case with this witness. After a short consultation the attorneys for the prosecution decided to introduce no evidence in rebuttal, and the court instructed the attorneys to commence their arguments. Judge Smith notified the spectators to indulge in no manifestations of approval or disapproval of the attorney's remarks.

After some little delay Judge Davidson, of Covington, Indiana, commenced the opening argument for the prosecution. It was 3:30 when he opened his remarks and five o'clock when he closed. Judge Davidson told the jury the only point they had to consider was whether the act was committed in self-defense. Whether at the moment Adams pulled the trigger he deemed it necessary to do so in order to save his own life or prevent great bodily injury. He was followed by Mr. C. C. Clark, of this city, who spoke in behalf of the defense, for a little over an hour, when court adjourned. Mr. Clark will finish this morning and will not likely be followed by Attorney Buckingham. His effort yesterday was an able one and was closely listened to by all persons present in the court room.

Democratic Primaries.

The democratic primaries were held in the first, second and third precincts of Decatur last evening with the following results:

First Precinct.—Delegates.—C. P. Housma, Jacob Sine, Henry Bishop, A. Shoemaker, C. J. Hartley, J. R. Miller, R. F. Kincaid, M. B. Thomas, T. A. Pritchett, P. B. Sparks, J. N. Randall. The delegates will choose their own alternates, if needed.

The Sunday School Children of the Christian church held a picnic at the fair grounds yesterday. They went out in hacks and express wagons, and enjoyed a good romp in the woods. When the shower came up they found ample shelter from pattering drops.

Commencing to-day and continuing until June 30th, the Wabash will sell round trip tickets at one fare, to Independence, Reece, Baxter Springs, Florence, Aberdeen, Cherryvale and Fredonia, Kan. Also to Neosha and South Greenfield, Missouri and to Lincoln, Columbus, and Grand Island, Nebraska. Tickets will be good for forty days.

It seems our neighboring town of Macon has another sensation. Our veracious correspondent at that place chronicles the shooting of John Coben on Wednesday night, by Thomas Doolen, for the insult offered Mrs. John Doolen, the wife of Thomas' brother. The nature of the wound inflicted, and the probable or possible result, an not given.

Commencing June 18th to 30th inclusive, the Wabash, St. Louis and Pacific will sell round trip tickets to Baxter Springs, Independence, Cherryvale, Abilene, Florence, Fredonia, and Reese, Kan., Lincoln, Columbus, Grand Island, Neb., South Greenfield and Neosho, Mo., at one fare for the round trip. Tickets good for 40 days, returning. For particulars inquire of Thos. Bivans, or Wabash ticket office.

E. T. Young, who resides near Imboden's Springs, has some fine hens of the Buff Cochin persuasion. We have been shown a specimen of the eggs laid by a couple of these fowls, and in the matter of size they would be a heavy strain on the credulity had we only heard of them instead of handling them and seeing them weighed. They weighed nearly a quarter of a pound each, and in shape they are perfect. They are not double-yolked, but the regular lay of minstrel hens, and Mr. Young can show more of the same dimensions.

NEW YORK DEMOCRATIC CONVENTI

SARATOGA, N. Y., June 19.—The Democratic Committee met at eleven, yesterday, and adjourned to distribute ets. At the meeting of the Tamman egates at noon, John Kelly presi General Spinola announced that the conference between the Chairmen o County Democracy, the Tammany and Irving Hall delegations, the representa of New York County had been agreed as follows: County Democracy, 31 gates; Tammany, 31; Irving Hall, 10. delegates were then named, including Kelly.

It became evident, as the hour of the vention approached, that, while the b ing would be densely crowded, there w be no confusion. The hall is devoi banners or emblems of any kind. platform is densely crowded. Before convention opened the scene was that perspiring crowd in desperate effort cool the heated atmosphere. During roll call of the convention, when the n of Samuel J. Tilden, Jr., was called, it ceived the first outburst of applause. J Kelly's name was also cheered. There not a woman in the convention, and no vision was made for their comfort.

At half-past one o'clock the convent was called to order by Daniel L. M ning, of Albany.

William E. Smith, the temporary Ch man of the convention, in his opening dress, laid stress on the fact that the D ocratic party had gained large accession its ranks from Republicans. He said t Democrats everywhere were looking a iously at the action of this conventi [Cheers.]

The roll of delegates was then calle Contesting papers were then presented fr the Ninth District, King's County, by delegate who said the sitting members ha title that was given them only by fra corruption, bribery and other methods pugnant to honest government.

William C. Whitney, of New York, fered a resolution that a committee, co posed of a member from each Congressio district be appointed to select delegates the National Convention, four delegates a four alternates from the State at-large, t Presidential Electors-at-Large, and Elector from each Congressional District.

Mr. Grady, of New York, offered amendment that of the New York rep sentation the County Democracy have fo Presidential Electors and seven Natio delegates; Tammany three Electors a seven delegates, and Irving Hall one Elec and two delegates.

Mr. Whitney accepted the amendme and the resolution was adopted.

At 3:15 an adjournment was taken un seven p. m.

The convention reassembled at sev o'clock, but the Committee on Credential not being ready to report, adjourned ag until half-past eight. It was, howeve after nine o'clock before the evening sessi proceeded to business. The report of th Committee on Contested Seats was adopted. The Committee on Permanent Organizatio reported in favor of continuing the tempo rary officers of the convention. A delegat from each Congressional District was named as Vice-President and one as Secretary. The report was adopted.

In introducing the report of the Committee on Resolutions Nelson J. Waterbury said the candidate of the Democratic party for the Presidency must be what the candidate of the Republican party is not. [Loud applause.] He must emphatically be what the candidate of the Democratic party has been in the past. After referring to the misgovernment of the Republican party and the opportunity now offered the Democratic party, Mr. Waterbury read the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Democracy of the State of New York, assembled to appoint its delegates to the National Convention of the party, commits to those delegates in association with representatives of the party from other States, the general declaration of Democratic principle upon National issues, at the same time recognizing that no issue can be more important than the election of a President of the United States whose character and public reputation shall give to the whole people an assurance of an honest, impartial and efficient administration of the laws, without suspicion of personal ends or private interests.

Resolved, That, as a declaration concerning the matter of the seat of Government, this convention adopts and affirms the resolutions of the convention of the party in 1874, 1876, and 1884, to which the people of the State have given hearty approval; that it recognizes the duty of the Legislature to respect the popular vote in 1883 for the abolition of the contract-system of labor in prisons, and that it heartily commends anew the efficient and upright administration of Grover Cleveland.

Resolved, That the delegates to the Democratic National Convention to be appointed are hereby instructed to enter that convention as a unit, and to act and vote as a unit in accordance with the will of the majority of the members thereof. Every delegate, or alternate occupying a place of a delegate, to be bound by this rule, and, in case of the absence of both delegate and alternate from any district, the vacancy to be filled by a vote of the majority of the delegation.

The reading of the resolutions was interrupted by frequent applause and cheers for Cleveland and counter cheers for Flower. The resolutions were unanimously passed. The reading of the list of delegates to Chicago was next taken up. It was found that two districts were unrepresented, and this led to a long discussion.

The following were chosen delegates-at-large to the Chicago Convention: Daniel Manning, Edward Cooper, Lester B. Faulkner and John C. Jacobs. District delegates were also chosen. Ex-Senator Grady proposed that in case Dorsheimer declined to act, General Spinola be appointed to fill his place. Carried.

The present incumbents, Charles Andrews and Charles A. Rapello, were nominated for Judges of the Court of Appeals. Whitney, of New York, offered a resolution that the State Committee be authorized to fill any vacancies which may occur in said committee or any electoral or other ticket, which was carried. The convention then adjourned.

A canvass of the Cleveland men here shows their claim to be that the delegation from this convention goes to Chicago three to one in favor of Cleveland. Many of the York National banks, said on June 14 the reserve of sixteen of those banks was below the amount required by law, consequently he argued that the clearing-house certificates were issued on the security of insolvent institutions. Mr. Morgan took a similar ground, and urged the necessity of the proposed investigation. In answer to Mr. Sherman, Mr. Morgan said he had no doubt that the clearing-house certificates were held by the banks as part of their reserve, and there was a deficiency of $12,000,000 among them. He contended further that there was a greater abuse of the powers of the National banks than the issue of $24,000,000 of clearing-house certificates. It was a fraud and a sham from beginning to end. There was no deposit of specie to secure the certificates, but these certificates were daily taken by the clearing house as if they were specie. That was a startling violation of law. Mr. Morgan went on to express surprise that the Senator from Ohio (Mr. Sherman) should advocate the interests of the National banks. "It has come to this," he exclaimed, "that the Senate is actually afraid to investigate the National banking system." Mr. Morrill declared that the clearing house had done nothing against the law, and that the certificates were perfectly valid.

Mr. Ingalls offered an amendment to the Mexican Pension bill removing the limitation from the Arrears of Pension act. Mr. Riddleberger said he would vote as liberally for the Union soldiers as any soldier, but he was opposed to putting such an amendment on this bill. Mr. Beck criticised the tactics of the Republican side in regard to the bill and declared that the object of seeking to extend its provision was to make a campaign cry of being liberal to the soldiers. The amendment, he said, would entail an expenditure of $250,000,000, and he would be obliged to vote against it if it contained such a provision. Mr. Conger contended that the amendment was not intended to defeat the bill, but to perform a simple act of justice to the Union soldiers. Mr. Voorhees argued that the limitation embodied an unjust principle, and moved to extend it ten years.

Mr. Beck gave notice in the Senate that he would offer an amendment to the Executive, Legislative and Judicial bill that all distilled spirits intended for export may be set apart in warehouse and remain in store for a period not exceeding nine months in the warehouse in which they were stored when so entered, subject to such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. The object of the amendment is understood to be to obtain nine months' extension on goods intended for export.

HOUSE.

The House resumed consideration of the bill to amend the Thurman Railroad act. The substitute offered by Mr. Post was rejected, and the original bill was amended so as to require fifty-five per cent. of its net profits to be paid by the Central Pacific and forty-five per cent by the Kansas Pacific Road. As amended the bill was passed.

The bill relating to the importation of contract labor was taken up. The bill makes it unlawful for any person to contract with aliens for labor or service of any kind to be performed in the United States, and makes any such contract void. It excepts skilled workmen who are to perform labor upon any new industry not at present established in the United States, and also actors, lecturers and singers. The bill was passed substantially as reported to the House—107 to 102.

The Campbell-Morey (Ohio) contested election case was taken up. The case turns mainly upon ninety-six votes cast by certain undergraduates at the Antioch, Lebanon, Wilberforce and Xenia Colleges, the contestant claiming and the majority sustaining the claim that their presence at school did not constitute residence under the laws of the State. Mr. Lowry occupied an hour in support of the report, which gives the seat to Campbell.

EMULATING GOULD.

Commodore Garrison, the Noted Millionaire, Purposely Allows Some of His Paper to Go to Protest.

NEW YORK, June 20.—Commodore C. K. Garrison, the millionaire, whose interests in South American and Pacific Ocean shipping have been very large, and who at one time controlled the southwestern railroad system. He was the controlling spirit in the People's Gas-Light and Coke Company of West Chicago, and was largely interested in the iron and steel mills throughout the United States.

Kiernan's Wall street agency furnishes following: The reports connecting Commodore C. K. Garrison's name with protested paper Wednesday have this foundation: He the indorser of Pittsburgh, Cleveland & Toledo paper, some of which may have to extended. The Commodore says he has not had any personal paper protested.

NEW YORK, June 20.—The rumors current yesterday relative to the failure of the millionaire steamboat man, Commodore K. Garrison, have no foundation. The commodore is immensely wealthy, the President of the People's Gas-Light Company, and enormously interested in shipping. He, with other very men, was an indorser on the Pittsburgh, Cleveland & tions are that Calkins will easily be nominated.

A prominent Democrat said yesterday afternoon that his party would undoubtedly nominate Thomas A. Hendricks for Governor. The gentleman is recognized as a stanch friend of Mr. Hendricks, and his statement is certainly based upon something tangible. In speaking of the matter he said that he knew Mr. Hendricks would be very greatly pleased at this mark of approval on the part of the Indiana Democracy, and inasmuch as he was out of the field as a candidate on the National ticket he would accept the race for Governor. It is well understood that Senator McDonald wants this, and will endeavor to bring about a consummation of the plan—which, however, is contrary to the Constitution of the State, the office of Governor being a one-term institution.

BLAINE AND LOGAN AT BANGOR.

BANGOR, Me., June 19.—Messrs. Blaine and Logan, with Senator Hale, arrived here last night from Ellsworth, and were received by a large crowd. At Stetson Square Chief Justice Appleton made a speech of welcome. Mr. Blaine said he appreciated the sincerity of a Bangor welcome. He was now merely acting on behalf of the people as the host of General Logan, who visited the State on a private errand. The people of Maine, Mr. Blaine said, do well to honor a man like Logan. In reply General Logan said that his heart was filled with gratitude at the greeting he had received in Maine. He alluded to the custom of the Government of selecting two men to represent the people in the management of their affairs, and related the history of the convention, which represented a people who thought that the time had come when their leader should be an aggressive statesman. They had asked themselves who that man was, and to the names suggested there came the answer, James G. Blaine, of Maine. General Logan predicted that the camp-fires of the country will be rekindled and that by the Ides of November the people will be aroused and obey the edicts of their personal sovereignty. He said those who wanted to go along with the procession must fall in quickly or they would be left by the wayside.

General Logan and Senator and Mrs. Hale returned to Washington to-day. Steve B. Elkins and wife arrived last night, and are the guests of Mr. Blaine at his residence.

THE PROHIBITIONISTS.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., June 19.—About four hundred delegates attended the State Prohibition Convention here yesterday, under the Presidency of M. H. Tibbles, of Le County. Ex-Governor St. John, of Kansas, was present, and delivered a brief address. The convention is one of much enthusiasm. About one fourth of the delegates are women, including such noted prohibition and woman's suffrage workers as Miss Frances Willard, Mrs. Willard, and Mrs. Harbert, of Chicago; Mrs. Ahrends and Mrs. Gordon H. Reid. The body will embody a plank in the platform favoring giving the ballot to women as an agency of accomplishing prohibition. The convention will nominate a full State ticket and appoint delegates to the National Convention at Pittsburgh. The delegates are impartial in their denunciations of both the great parties.

Miss Frances E. Williard was chosen Vice-President-at-large for this State. Mrs. E. B. Harbert, of Chicago, offered a resolution urging that the convention enunciate a radical and ringing platform of principles. This was referred to a committee. One Vice-President was chosen from each district. At 5:30 the convention adjourned until to-day.

A TERRIBLE RIOT.

Mutiny of a Regiment of Irish Militia—A Drunken Melee in Which Many Were Killed.

NEW YORK, June 19.—A cable dispatch to this city dated Limerick says: "The most exciting reports reached this city last evening of a mutiny by the artillery militia on board a vessel lying in the harbor down the river Shannon. For some days past the militiamen who objected to their quarters on board the ship have exhibited signs of insubordination. Yesterday afternoon, defying all orders, they broke away from their floating barrack in boats, deserting their posts. Flinging aside their arms and cursing their officers, they departed with wild shouts and made a landing at the town of Glin, some miles below Limerick. The place is a small one, not mustering a thousand inhabitants. Immediately they reached the river bank the mutineers advanced two hundred strong on the town. The frightened people fled before the ruffians who, half mob and half battalion, stormed the place, beating the townsmen as they ran, gutting bakers' and provision shops, and stealing whatever of value they could lay their hands on. Returning, they centered on the two or three wine and liquor shops in the town, into which they broke, and whisky, porter and ale flowed in gallons.

While the besotted militiamen were getting drunk and filling the air with yells the townsmen had gathered back of Glin and had armed themselves with every conceivable weapon from a shot-gun to a pitchfork. The few constabulary were powerless from the beginning. With a grand rush and a great yell the Glinsmen came down on the now maddened militiamen, and a pitched battle ensued. Heads were smashed on both sides. Citizens were beaten with bottles, belts, chairs and table-legs. The militiamen were shot, pitchforked and clubbed, and finally broke and ran for the water. They were pursued to the Shannon's edge, and, bleeding, tattered and bruised, made their way on board the vessel they had deserted a couple of hours before, and surrendered to their officers.

The pursuit was so hot and the threats from the victorious Glinsmen of burning and sinking the ship were so earnest that the vessel, with the disabled and cowed mutineers, at once put to sea. A number were killed.

Y. adds his testimony to that of hundreds of others when he writes, in ordering a bottle of Athlophoros, the great remedy for rheumatism and neuralgia: "I find your medicine all you claim for it.
